THE STORY

A lone trumpeter dreams away his days in voluntary solitude, surrounding himself with a private audience and his aspirations. The exterior world is displaced by a personal one devoted to his thoughts and memories.

THE DIRECTOR

Ron McDougall's other writing and directing credits include a short narrative film (Breath, 2001) and a documentary (Scar Tissue, 2003). Ron studied Fine Arts at York University in Toronto, and has explored themes such as emotional impotence and isolation through many media. Ron currently resides in Nova Scotia, working in new media.
